A simple Issue Tracker application which can be used to track issues related to software products, group projects, etc.

User can provide a description of the issue, select the severity, and assign it to the person responsible for solving the issue. Once the issue is solved, it can be closed. Also, there is an option provided to delete the issue.

Technology used: HTML5, CSS, JavaScript, LocalStorage of the browser for storing data.